Introduction from the IFLA ’98 Secretariat

The preparations for the 64th IFLA General Conference are in full swing - our telephones are ringing non-stop with potential participants requesting more information, registrations are coming in at an increasing rate (on May 31 we have already received 1,200 registrations from 84 countries), the volunteers are bracing themselves for the work that needs to be done onsite and the Netherlands Library Community is preparing itself to welcome the thousands of librarians and information workers that will come to Amsterdam. The Organising Secretariat at Congrex Holland is positively buzzing with activity.

August is a very busy time for Amsterdam when usually hundreds of thousands of tourists come to the City. It is a very popular destination for people from all parts of the world. Amsterdam, as a cultural centre of the Netherlands has many (cultural) events which are staged all year round - which also run through the summer. For your information, and to give you an indication of the cultural and sports events that are taking place we have included an events calendar (see page 19) which gives a short overview of what is happening in August in and around Amsterdam. Because the city is so busy in the summer, and if you are relying on the organisation to book you a room for your stay in Amsterdam, make sure you do this immediately. Although we cannot guarantee a room any more at this point (the deadline was May 15) our Hotel Department will do its utmost to find you a room in the preferred category of your choice. There are still many rooms available, but you have to let us know very soon.

This year, as in previous years, the IFLA Conference has an exciting and extensive professional programme. The programme is packed with interesting lectures and papers, workshops, satellite meetings, section and roundtable meetings etc. etc. etc. And, of course, there will be ample time to meet old friends and colleagues, make new friends and extend your knowledge. This issue of the IFLA Express gives an update of all the Satellite Meetings, Work-shops and Open Sessions that were already listed in issue 1 of the IFLA Express (published in March of this year).

An extensive Social Programme, Professional Visits Programme and Tours Programme has been set up by the Netherlands Organising Committee. We hope that you will enjoy the varied programme that we have put together for you. For descriptions of the various components of the programme please see pages 13 - 17.

The organisation of IFLA ’98 is most grateful to all the sponsors of this year’s event. Without their generous help it would have been impossible to organise an event of this magnitude. On page 5 we have given a listing of all those companies and other organisations who have contributed to the organisation of the 64th IFLA General Conference to date. On behalf of all participants the Netherlands Organising Committee expresses its gratitude to all of these organisations.
We are confident that the IFLA ’98 conference will be a stimulating, exciting and memorable event and hope to welcome many international librarians to Amsterdam.

Important Registration Information

Arriving at Schiphol Airport

Starting from Friday, 14 August at 08:00 there will be an IFLA ’98 Information Desk at Schiphol Airport. The desk staff will be able to inform participants to IFLA ’98 on the way to and from the Airport and provide general information to participants.

The IFLA ’98 Information Desk is situated in the Arrivals Hall of Terminal 1, opposite gate 2 (the Terminal where scheduled European flights arrive) at Schiphol Airport.

Registration Desk

Registration for the 64th IFLA General Conference will start on Saturday, August 15 and take place in the RAI Congress Centre:
Amsterdam RAI
Congress Centre
Europaplein 12
1078 GZ Amsterdam
The Netherlands

Registration Information

It is advisable to register early for the IFLA ’98 Conference - also in view of the hotel situation in Amsterdam. Registrations after 7 August 1998 are kindly requested to be made onsite.

Day registrations are available at NLG 250. Please note that these registrations do not give entrance to the social events. Tickets can be purchased onsite for Social Events. Full registrations do, of course, include the Social events.
Opening hours Registration Desk

Due to the fact that another large conference precedes the IFLA ’98 Conference and the RAI Centre will not be available to IFLA participants until Saturday August 15, the Organising Secretariat, together with IFLA Headquarters, has decided that the Registration will open in the Onyx Lounge, RAI Congress Centre on:

Saturday, 15 August: 08:00 - 18:00

As of Sunday, August 16, the Registration Desk will be moved to the Lounge Forum, RAI Congress Centre:

Sunday, 16 August: 07:00 - 20:30
Monday, 17 August: 07:30 - 19:00
Tuesday, 18 August: 07:30 - 18:00
Wednesday, 19 August: 07:30 - 18:00
Thursday, 20 August: 07:30 - 18:00
Friday, 21 August: 07:30 - 12:00

Getting to the RAI Congress Centre

- From the Inner city: The Amsterdam RAI is located in the southern part of Amsterdam, which can easily be reached by tram from the city centre. Depending on where you are staying, the ride will usually take up to 15 minutes.
- From the Amsterdam Central Station: you may take the Amstelveen express tram 51 (traveling time: 12 minutes; exit at Amsterdam RAI Station), tram 25 or tram 4 (traveling time: 30 minutes; exit at Amsterdam RAI Europaplein).
- From Schiphol Airport: you may take the train to the Amsterdam RAI railway station. This takes about 10 minutes. The walk from the RAI railway station to the RAI Congress Centre is approximately 7 minutes.
- From the highway: if you are traveling by car you may take the A10 highway to Amsterdam, exit 109 RAI.

Parking Facilities

The RAI Congress Centre has its own indoor car park situated under the Congress Centre with a total of 800 parking places. Tickets should be bought before leaving the Congress Centre and cost NLG 15,- per day/per entrance. If you wish to leave your car overnight, please check with the doorman.

Visas and letters of invitation

Please remember that for entering the Netherlands you might need a visa. Your nearest Netherlands Embassy or Consulate will be able to advise you on this. Be aware that in addition to a visa for the Netherlands you may also need a visa for a country of stopover - even if you are only in transit without leaving this airport. In order to check whether this is necessary, contact the Embassies to the country(ies) in question.

An official letter of invitation to facilitate entrance, visa application etc. can be issued by the IFLA ’98 Conference Secretariat upon request. An official invitation does not imply financial support.
Important Hotel Information

Amsterdam, the host city for the 1998 IFLA General Conference, is usually very busy in August. This year particularly so, it also being the host city for the Gay Games (expected attendance 200,000) and a big international medical conference (10,000+) in the early weeks of August. Pressure on hotel accommodation is even higher than usual. As usual, the Organising Committee (through the services of Congrex Holland, PCO) has block booked a large number of rooms for the IFLA participants in various price categories. Bookings, we hasten to add, at competitive prices!

Due to the aforementioned pressures, it will not be possible to hold the blocked rooms after June 15. We urge IFLA delegates to register early and use the available hotel accommodation. Unfortunately, no guarantees can be given for accommodation when booked after May 15, as was stated in the Final Announcement brought out earlier this year. Obviously, Congrex will do its utmost to hold on to the allotments as long as possible or find hotel accommodation, but this may no longer be available at the required price or would not be found inside the City of Amsterdam.

Transportation

The National Organising Committee is pleased to inform you that O.C.L.C. will sponsor a five day transportation ticket for every full participant to the IFLA ’98 Conference. The transportation ticket is valid on all buses, trams and on the Amsterdam Metro. The transportation ticket will be issued together with your Registration materials (as of Saturday, August 15).

Workshop Updates
During the time since the list of workshops was published in IFLA Express # 1, the workshop planned by the Section on Bibliography has been cancelled; the workshop planned by the Section on Rare Books and Manuscripts will be a half-day workshop, and not a full-day workshop; and a half-day workshop has been scheduled by the UDT Core Programme.

UDT Core Programme: Workshop, Meeting no. 161A
Thursday, August 20, 13:30-17:30

This workshop will examine the issues and challenges of evaluating the quality of Internet information resources. It is directed at librarians and information professionals who may be considering building electronic resource collections, developing Internet-based services, or instructing users in the effective use of digital information. This information will provide: an overview of the problems of Internet information and the challenges for evaluation, release and introduction to the IFLA/DESIRE Guidelines for the Evaluation of Internet Information Resources, and presentations by developers of subject gateway services and other projects that illustrate the important questions and issues in building high-quality Internet resources. For registration: Louise Lantaigne, UDT Core Programme Office, Information Technology Services, National Library of Canada, 395 Wellington Street, Ottawa, Ontario K1A ON4, Canada (fax: +(1-819)9946835; e-mail: louise.lantaigne@udt.ifla.org).

Discussion Groups
A number of Discussion Groups will hold meetings on Sunday, August 16. The meetings are open to any interested participants. The meetings are from 08:30-10:20 and from 10:30 to 12:20.

Social Responsibilities Discussion Group, Meeting no. 58
Sunday, August 16, 08:30-10:20

The IFLA Social Responsibilities Discussion Group will have its first official meeting in Amsterdam. The group was established to broadly address the role of libraries in society and concentrate on three broad themes: equality of access to library collections and facilities, and the growing gap between library rich and poor between and within countries; and the "right to know". At this first official meeting, the group will elect convenors, and hear discussion papers on the growing gap between the library rich and poor both between and within countries. Sub-themes will include equality of access to electronic information, rural library development, the problem of fees for service, the library's role in literacy initiatives, and North-South library cooperation. All are invited to the meeting and to comment on the issues discussed.

Corporate and for Profit Libraries Discussion Group, Meeting no. 59
Sunday, August 16, 08:30-10:20
Performance Measurements for Academic Libraries Discussion Group, Meeting no. 60
Sunday, August 16, 08:30-10:20

Genealogy and Local History Libraries (Start-up meeting to consider Discussion Group), Meeting no. 61
Sunday, August 16, 08:30-10:20

The formation of this group will provide a forum for genealogy and local history librarians to discuss common issues and problems and to foster international cooperation. The intended audience is specialized genealogy and local history libraries, public and university libraries with genealogy and/or local history reading rooms or reference services, and other interested individuals. Topics to be discussed include collection development guidelines, reference service strategies, cataloguing books and microforms, cooperation with genealogy and local history societies, community outreach, recruiting and training volunteers, fund raising, locating and using Internet sites, utilizing genealogical databases, pre-conference workshops for reference librarians, future projects.

Performance Measurements for Public Libraries (Start-up meeting to consider Discussion Group), Meeting no. 65
Sunday, August 16, 10:30-12:20

Internet Discussion Group, Meeting no. 66
Sunday, August 16, 10:30-12:20

How are libraries using the Internet as a reference tool? What advice is available for designing library Web sites? How are libraries dealing with copyright issues on the WWW? What is the librarian's role in digital data? The Internet Discussion Group is a forum for exchanging ideas and information about the introduction and support for the use of Internet in libraries and by library users. The format for this session will be discussions on these topics and others relating to the use of the Internet in libraries.

Friends and Advocates of Libraries Discussion Group, Meeting no. 67
Sunday, August 16, 10:30-12:20

Participants will discuss the importance of advocacy and methods and strategies for increasing public and private support for all types of libraries. Robert Wedgeworth, IFLA Past President, will moderate the presentation. Presenters include Margreet Wijnstroom (the Netherlands), Kay Raseroka (Botswana), Evgeniia Rossinskaya (Russian Federation), Betty Turock (USA), and Rima Kupryte (Hungary). Items under discussion will include grant proposals and working with foundations, training for trainers programmes, and the importance of community involvement and advocacy. The Discussion Group will encourage international understanding and cooperation in finding ways to strengthen library services, collections, programmes, and access by increasing funding and visibility.
Reference Work Discussion Group, Meeting no. 68
Sunday, August 16, 10:30-12:20

The scope of the Discussion Group on Reference Work includes all aspects of reference work in all types of libraries in all regions. This year the focus will be on the organization of reference work. Presentations from the following types of libraries have been collected: national libraries; university, research and academic libraries; public libraries and special libraries. A short report will be presented from each as a starting point for discussion. The following topics will be emphasized: 1) where is the reference department found within the library organization; 2) what services are offered; and 3) positive and negative effects. One of the most important aspects is the future role of reference work.

Division Rooms

Permanent Division rooms are available throughout the week. IFLA professional groups wishing to reserve a Division room, may inquire at the IFLA Headquarters Secretariat at IFLA Headquarters, or at the IFLA Headquarters Secretariat, Room H at the RAI when the conference is in progress. The rooms assigned are:

- Room R: Division 2, Division 8, and the ALP Core Programme
- Room S: Division 3, Division 4, and the UBCIM Core Programme
- Room T: Division 5, Division 7, and the UAP Core Programme
- Room U: Division 1, Division 6, and the PAC and UDT Core Programmes

The Internet Room

A number of companies and other organisations have kindly agreed to sponsor the IFLA ’98 Internet Room. These companies include: Nederlandse Bibliotheek Dienst (NBD), PICA, Sun Microsystems and SURF.

The Internet Room will be located in the exhibition area and will be available during the opening hours of the IFLA ’98 Exhibition. During the days that the exhibition is closed the Internet Café (located in the Service Hall of the RAI) will be available to the participants of the IFLA ’98 Conference.

Paper handling & production

The Netherlands Organising Committee is very pleased that it has been able to secure the sponsorship of XEROX, the Document Company, to produce the many booklets and printed matters during IFLA ’98.

Opening Ceremony and Plenary Session

Jan Pronk to deliver Keynote Address

The IFLA ’98 National Organising Committee is very proud to announce that Mr. J. P. Pronk, Netherlands Minister for Development Cooperation, has agreed to deliver the Keynote Address during the Opening of the 64th IFLA General Conference.

Mr. Pronk studied economics at the School of Economics in Rotterdam and was a lecturer at the School of Economics’ Development Programming Centre and the Netherlands Economics Institute in Rotterdam. He was a member of the Lower House of Parliament for the Labour Party (PvdA) from 1971 to 1980 and from 1986 to 1989.

Mr. Pronk is a well-known and well respected figure in the world of development cooperation and has a long track record in international relations. He was Minister for Development Cooperation in three governments - the last appointment being in 1994 to date. From 1980 to 1985 he was deputy secretary-general of UNCTAD and from 1995 to 1989 he was assistant secretary general of the United Nations.

Mr. Pronk has been secretary to the Mansholt Committee, a member of the editorial boards of the International Spectator, Wending and treasurer of the Brandt Commission.

In his Keynote Address, Mr. Pronk will address the theme of this year’s IFLA Conference: On the Crossroads of Information and Culture.
The Opening Ceremony and Plenary Session will take place on Monday, 17 August 1998 starting at 16:00 and will take place in the Main Auditorium and the Forum Hall, Amsterdam RAI. Please note that the Main Auditorium has limited seating and it is therefore advised that you take your seat early. A video overflow will be created to the Forum Hall where a live, simultaneous broadcast will take place.

IFLA ’98 Exhibition

In connection with the IFLA ’98 General Conference, an international trade exhibition will be arranged at the Amsterdam RAI International Exhibition and Congress Centre. The exhibition, that will run simultaneously with and at the same location as the conference, is open to all companies and organisations with products and services related to the library field. The exhibition will be held from August 17 - 19, 1998. For stand reservation and information please contact Rose International.

IFLA Exhibition Booth

Information on the objectives and activities of IFLA’s professional groups, copies of recently published IFLA publications, information on IFLA membership benefits and much more can be found at the IFLA booth in the Exhibition Hall. During the conference week the booth will be staffed by IFLA officers who will be happy to inform you personally about the professional programmes of their Sections, Round Tables and Core Programmes. The schedule of when different groups will be present at the booth will be published in IFLA Express throughout the conference week.
Koninklijke Bibliotheek Bicentennial 1798 - 1998

Exactly two hundred years and one day after its inauguration, the Koninklijke Bibliotheek, national library of the Netherlands, is opening a large-scale bicentennial exhibition in the Nieuwe Kerk in Amsterdam. Herewith national librarian Wim van Drimmelen, invites all IFLA delegates to visit Het wonderbaarlijk alfabet (The Wonderful Alphabet) during their stay in Amsterdam.

In the monumental church on the Dam Square you will see the largest bookcase in the world, measuring 40 by 9 metres. Furthermore, twenty-six areas have been created, one for each letter of the alphabet. The M for Madonna for instance contains beautiful miniatures from medieval manuscripts. The O for the House of Orange is a showcase for the most sumptuous books from the collection of the Stadholders. Your attention will also be drawn by a variety of children’s books, newspapers, atlases by Blaeu, songbooks and much, much more material from the Koninklijke Bibliotheek. If you are curious already, feel free to browse through the website of the Koninklijke Bibliotheek (http://www.konbib.nl) to sample impressions of the various collections in the national library of the Netherlands. In the IFLA conference bag you will find a free ticket of admission, which is valid from August 19 to October 18. We sincerely hope you will have a wonderful voyage through our Dutch alphabet!

Books for All
Books for All, a project which aims to provide reading material for children and young people in developing countries, will celebrate its 25th anniversary during the IFLA-conference in Amsterdam with a reception in the local Buitenveldert lending library, a branch of the Amsterdam Public Library.
The reception will take place on Wednesday August 19, 1998, between 5 and 7.30 pm. After an opening address by Hans van Velzen, director of the Amsterdam Public Library, Lioba Betten will describe the past and present of Books for All.
A presentation will then be given by the Amsterdam Public Library about library work in a multicultural city.
The Buitenveldert library is located at W. van Weldammelaan 5, close to the IFLA-conference.

Information on The Netherlands and Amsterdam
Although the name Holland is often used, the country’s official name is The Netherlands, which literally means “low countries”. The Netherlands is flanked to the north and west by the North Sea, to the east by Germany and to the south by Belgium. The official language is Dutch, which is also spoken in Flanders (Belgium), the Netherlands Antilles Aruba and Surinam. With a population of almost 16 million, the Netherlands is one of the most densely populated countries in the world. The majority of the people live in the western part of the country which includes the cities of Amsterdam (capital), The Hague (seat of government), Rotterdam (harbour) and Utrecht.
The Netherlands is a constitutional monarchy with a parliamentary system of government. Queen Beatrix is the head of state. The country is divided into 12 provinces comprising 636 municipalities. The official unit of currency is the guilder, abbreviated to NLG; one guilder is divided into one hundred cents.

The Netherlands has a close knit public transport system of buses, trams and metro in the cities, as well as inter-city and regional trains and bus services. Special visitor passes can be obtained from all train stations and almost all tobacco shops.

The Netherlands has much to offer in the cultural sphere. There are more than 900 museums of which the Rijksmuseum, the Anne Frank House and the Vincent van Gogh Museum in Amsterdam, the Mauritshuis in The Hague and the Kröller Müller Museum in Otterloo are the most famous.

Climate
The average mid-day temperature in the summer is about 20ºC, but may vary between 15ºC and 25ºC. Evening nights might still be cold. Rain always remains a possibility in our coastal climate. Both a raincoat/umbrella and a sweater are a wise precaution.

AMSTERDAM
Amsterdam, popular throughout the world, is the most harmonious yet varied city of the Netherlands. A city with its very own character and style. Famous for its canals, gabled houses, museums and of course its atmosphere. Amsterdam’s old inner city is well known for its compactness. The museums, monuments, markets, shopping streets and other attractions are all within easy walking distance. Amsterdam is the proud possessor of the largest historical inner city of Europe with more than 6,800 National Trust buildings dating as far back as the 16th century.

Shopping
In Amsterdam shops are generally open during the week from Monday to Saturday from 09.00 until 18.00. Late night shopping is on Thursday until 21.00. However, more and more shops in the city Centre open on Sundays from 12.00 until 17.00.

Calendar of events in Amsterdam Amsterdam is one of the major cultural centres in Europe and indeed the World. The listing below gives you an indication of the cultural and sporting events that are taking place during and just before the 64th IFLA General Conference. Obviously the list is not complete. Should you wish to have more information we suggest you visit the City of Amsterdam website (www.amsterdam.nl) or contact the Amsterdam Tourist Office (tel: +31 20 551 2512; fax +31 20 625 2869; e-mail: vvvadam@pi.net).
