

IFLA SATELLITE MEETING – PROGRAM

Scholarly Information on East Asia in the 21st Century
Scholarly Information on East Asia in the 21st Century

PROGRAMME

(Current as of March 31, 2006)

Morning session 1

Keynote address

Satoru Takeuchi                      The book path – from China and Korea to Japan

Digitization of nonroman scripts and digital collections; E-resource management

Xian Wu                                      Digital preservation: commitment and collaboration

Junglim Chae                                Building a digital collection in Yonsei Library

Charlene Chou                                Access to Chinese resources in global digital libraries: beyond cooperative cataloging

Sun-Ah Key                                    E-resources management and user services with the ERM (E-resource management) system

Morning session 2 (Simultaneous Session A)

Publishing trends for scholarly information

Nanako Takahashi	Analysis of Korean author names in publications – for a better search of author names in NACSIS-CAT
Yuko Matsuzaki	Sharing East Asian economic experiences: shashi and transnational corporate activities
Yunshan Ye	Literature, media and market economy: new trends in Chinese literary publishing
Karen T. Wei	Academic publishing and information service to China scholars in North America

Morning Session 2 (Simultaneous Session B)

E-resources; Digital resources

Taketoshi Ishikawa	NDL (National Diet Library, Japan) information services on Asia – focusing on Internet information
Jung-ran Park	Global access to Korean cultural heritage resources: examination of the current status of digitization practice in the National Library of Korea (NLK)
Hideo Yamanaka	Image data as the bibliographic description for early Japanese books
Cathy Chiu	Instruction on using digital resources on East Asian studies and information literacy

Afternoon Session 1

Collection development and collection management

Hyun-Hee Kim	Building the management and evaluation models for the national consortium of institutional repositories called “dCollection”
Amelia McKenzie	New directions for library collections on Asia
Glenda Lammers	[Using OCLC WorldCat for collection development]
Gillian Currie	[National Gallery of Australia implements project to integrate information into collection management system]

Afternoon Session 2 (Simultaneous Session C)

Cooperative reference service; Information service; Document delivery

Hong Xu, Xiuying Zou	Global document delivery and user studies: the Gateway experience
Jing Liu, Jade Atwill	Bridging East and West with cooperative reference service
Kyungmi Chun, Jaeun Ku	Collaborative virtual reference service for Korean studies
Mihyang Park	The strategy and future plan of information service in National Assembly Library

Afternoon Session 2 (Simultaneous Session D)Technical processing and cooperative cataloging of East Asian material

Jiping Wu	Cooperative cataloging of East Asian material
Shuyong Jiang	Is faster better? an observation on Chinese vendor records
Hiroshi Motoyoshi	The peculiarity of Chinese and Japanese orthography, absence of word division requires more flexible matching system
Hideyuki Morimoto	JTKU bibliographic records loaded in RLG Union Catalog: their compatibility with LC practices for Japanese-language monographic title cataloguing