About IFLA

Founded in 1927, the International Federation of Library Associations (IFLA) and Institutions is an independent international non-governmental association. The aims of IFLA are to promote international understanding, cooperation, discussion, research and development in all fields of library activity and information science, and to provide a body through which librarianship can be represented in matters of international interest.

IFLA has nearly 1,700 members, including 155 associations, 1,100 institutions and 354 non-voting personal and student affiliates, representing 150 countries and all types of libraries. The World Library and Information Congress is the continuation of the former IFLA General Conference and Council.
